About the Misra Centre at IIMA

The Misra Centre for Financial Markets and Economy at IIM Ahmedabad is dedicated to supporting contemporary research on financial markets and the economy within the broader economic context. A platform for knowledge dissemination is provided through seminars, conferences, media outreach, and other initiatives. The Centre is responsible for the production and management of key financial and economic databases, such as the Business Inflation Expectation Survey (BIES) and the IIMA-SFarmsIndia Agri Land Price Index (ISALPI). These databases are widely used by researchers and practitioners, offering valuable insights into financial markets and the Indian economic landscape. The Centre also works on developing and conducting firm-level surveys that aim to assess the business and economic landscape, further contributing to a comprehensive understanding of India's economic environment.
