7a) Normalization of the marks:-

The Computer Based Examination is conducted in multiple sessions. Whenever Computer Based Examination is conducted in multiple sessions based on the same syllabus, same pattern, for candidates having same eligibility criteria, the raw marks obtained by the candidate in different sessions will be converted to normalized marks. A candidate will be permitted to appear only in one session. Attending more than one session will automatically lead to disqualification of the candidates and no further correspondence in this regard will be entertained.

In case the examinations are conducted in only one session, actual marks obtained by the candidate will only be considered for calculating the Merit List.

Calculation of Normalization marks for multi-sessions papers:

In case of multi-sessions paper, a suitable normalization is applied to take in to account any variation in the difficulty levels of the questions paper across different sessions. The following Normalization formula for calculating the normalized marks for the multi-session paper is adopted as followed in various Competitive Examination in India

Score Normalization using Mean and Standard Deviation of Base Standard and Target Batch,

In this method there are following 3 factors:

- A) Ratio of SD of Base/ Standard Batch to SD of Targeted Batch.
- B) Difference of Score of Candidates and Average Score of the Target Batch.
- C) Average Score of Base / Standard Batch Normalized Score = $A*B+C$

Batch with maximum average with minimum 70% of the overall average attendance is considered as the Base/Standard Batch.

$$X_n = (S_2/S_1)*(X - X_{av}) + Y_{av}$$
